RECOMMENDATIONS FOR FURTHER RESEARCH

A review of the Senate Finance, Taxation and Claims Committee meeting tape for 4/12/84, would require approximately 1 hour of additional research time.

COMMENTS

The only committee where a formal hearing on SB 233 was had was in the Senate Finance, Taxation and Claims Committee on 4/12/84. The similiar House Bill, HB 465 was withdrawn from all House committees of reference prior to a formal hearing.

SUBJECT:

BILL NO. AND SPONSOR:

Regulation of Trade,
Commerce, & Investments

SB 233 by Senator Weinstein

I. SUMMARY:

A. Present Situation:

Sellers of "business opportunities" are required to file a disclosure statement with the Division of Consumer Services in the Department of Agriculture prior to placing advertisements or making other representations to prospective purchasers in Florida. "Business opportunity" as defined in s. 559.801(1), F.S., means the sale or lease of equipment products or services in which the seller indicates that he will: 1) provide assistance in finding locations for vending machine, or coin operated amusements; 2) purchase products made, grown or modified by the purchaser using supplies or services sold to
