Florida State University Law Review

Volume 15 | Issue 1

Spring 1987

Florida Style Manual: Introduction

The Editors

Follow this and additional works at: http://ir.law.fsu.edu/lr

Part of the Legal Writing and Research Commons

Recommended Citation

http://ir.law.fsu.edu/lr/vol15/iss1/7

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarship Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Florida State University Law Review by an authorized editor of Scholarship Repository. For more information, please contact bkaplan@law.fsu.edu.
INTRODUCTION

The Florida Style Manual supplements the standard citation authority for American legal journals, A Uniform System of Citation (Bluebook). The Manual is an outgrowth of the Florida State University Law Review's annual Review of Florida Legislation. From the conception of that project, the editors realized that citations to many Florida-specific sources—particularly those generated by the Florida Legislature—would be rendered almost meaningless if conventional Bluebook citation forms were followed. Other Florida sources were not addressed at all by the Bluebook. This Florida Style Manual is the product of their struggle to develop meaningful citation forms for Florida materials.

Publishing a legal journal is a cooperative venture on the part of many people. The author's work is at the heart of this undertaking. We at the Florida State University Law Review hope this style manual will result in better manuscripts that ultimately will advance legal scholarship and public policy-making in Florida. The Law Review is especially indebted to Floyd R. Self, the 1985 Legislative Editor, and to Sandra Bower Ross, Volume 15 Articles and Notes Editor, for their work in developing these citation forms and for making the Florida Style Manual a reality. The Law Review welcomes comments or suggestions for improvement.

The Editors