7.3 Research Materials: Florida Constitutions

Most of the materials used in the 1968 revision of Florida's Constitution have not been published and are found either in the State Archives or at the Florida Supreme Court Library. The Legislative Library has copies of the bound proceedings from the 1968 and 1978 Constitution Revision Commissions.

7.4 Annotations

When citing an annotation to the Florida Constitution, use the following form, with a parenthetical indicating the subject of the annotation.

7.5 Proposed Constitutional Amendments

Cite to a proposed amendment to the Florida Constitution by citing to the legislative resolution number, year, and page number where the proposed amendment may be found. Indicate the section to be amended in a parenthetical.

92. Fla. SJR 341, at 2 (1989) (proposed Fla. Const. art. III, § 19 (a), (b) and (c)).

8. Executive Branch Materials

8.1 Executive Orders

Executive orders issued by Florida governors generally take the form of presidential executive orders. In general, see Bluebook Rule 14.7.

8.1.1 In Text

Spell out and use lower case letters if only generally referring to an executive order. If it is the first reference to the executive order, footnote the reference and include the required information.

Governor Chiles, in August of 1991, signed an executive order extending the executive assignment of State Attorney Bruce Colton regarding the arrest of the defendant for attempted first degree murder.\textsuperscript{93}

\textit{Specific References:} Spell out and capitalize the phrase “Executive Order” when referring to a particular executive order by number.

In 1991, in order to rectify this situation, Governor Lawton Chiles issued Executive Order 91-220.

\textbf{8.1.2 In Footnotes}

Abbreviate a citation sentence in a footnote. If available, include the date issued.

\textbf{8.2 EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS}

\textbf{8.2.1 In Text}

If completely identifying an agency, start with the department followed by the division, bureau, section, and subsection (as appropriate). Depending upon the context, it is sometimes appropriate for the word “Florida” to appear before the department’s name. The names of agencies are spelled out both in text and textual discussions in footnotes. However, if the agency is more frequently known by an acronym, that acronym may be used on subsequent reference. \textit{See} Rule 2.1.1.

Financing statements are filed with the Department of State, Division of Corporations, Bureau of Uniform Commercial Code, Documents Examination Section.

The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services (HRS) is the largest agency in Florida government.

\textbf{8.2.2 In Footnotes}

Abbreviate the agency’s name in a citation sentence in a footnote according to Rule 2.2.4.

(a)  Bound Volumes

(b)  Unbound Copies

8.4  Florida Administrative Code

This code is similar to the Code of Federal Regulations, so Bluebook Rule 14.2 generally applies.

8.4.1  In Text

The title should be spelled out, capitalized, and italicized.

The Department's rules are found in chapter 1C of the Florida Administrative Code. The Bureau's rules are found in Rule 1C-6 of the Code.

8.4.2  In Footnotes

(a)  General Form

The form is:

Because the code is published in looseleaf form, use the date that appears on the page on which the provision appears, or the date on the first page of the subdivision, if it is more recent than the date the volume was published.

(b) Short Form: The Use of "Id."

When citing to the exact material as in the preceding footnote, use "id." alone. When the second citation is to the Code but to a different rule, use "id." followed by the rule number. Include the year if it is different than the preceding footnote.

101. Id. at r. 28-3.031(1).

102. Id. at r. 28-5.111 (Aug. 1989).

(c) Citing to an Entire Chapter

Cite to an entire chapter of the Administrative Code as follows:
